Name _____ Date _____

Science · Animal groups

Groups of Animals

Read the big idea. Then match each group to a clue.

Five groups

Animals with a backbone are sorted into five groups: mammals, birds, fish, reptiles and amphibians. Insects are a group of animals with no backbone.

Write the letter in the box.

☐	1. mammals	a)	have feathers
☐	2. birds	b)	live in water and on land
☐	3. fish	c)	have scales and fins
☐	4. reptiles	d)	have fur or hair
☐	5. amphibians	e)	have dry scaly skin

Name _____ Date _____

Science · Animal groups

Amphibians

Fill in the blanks.

land | water | moist | tadpole

1. Amphibians live in water and on _____.

2. They lay their eggs in _____.

3. A frog has smooth, _____ skin.

4. A baby frog is a _____.

More free worksheets littletakhti.com

Name _____ Date _____

Science · Parts of a plant

Parts of a Plant

Read the big idea. Then label the parts.

Big idea

A plant has roots, a stem, leaves and flowers. Many plants also grow fruit with seeds inside. Each part has a job.

roots stem leaves flower fruit

1. The part under the soil: _____
2. The part that holds the plant up: _____
3. The green flat parts: _____
4. The bright, colourful part: _____
5. The part that holds seeds: _____

Name _____ Date _____

Science · Parts of a plant

Which Part Does This?

Circle the right part.

1. Takes water from the soil — roots / flower

2. Makes food using sunlight — leaves / stem

3. Holds the plant up — stem / seed

4. Grows into a new plant — seed / leaf

5. Holds seeds inside — fruit / root

More free worksheets littletakhti.com

Name _____ Date _____

Science · What plants need to grow

What Do Plants Need?

Read the big idea. Then circle true or false.

Plants need

Plants are living things. To grow well they need water, sunlight, air and space. Most plants also grow in soil, which holds the roots and gives them goodness.

1. Plants need water. True False

2. Plants can grow well in a dark cupboard. True False

3. Plants need air. True False

4. Roots grow in the soil. True False

Name _____ Date _____

Science · What plants need to grow

Parts That Help

Match each part to its job.

Write the letter in the box.

☐	1. roots	a)	carries water up the plant
☐	2. stem	b)	take in water from the soil
☐	3. leaves	c)	makes seeds for new plants
☐	4. flower	d)	use sunlight to make food

Name _____ Date _____

Science · Healthy habits and germs

What Are Germs?

Read the big idea. Then circle true or false.

Germs

Germs are tiny living things. They are too small to see. Some germs can make us ill. Washing our hands with soap and water helps get rid of germs.

1. Germs are too small to see.	True	False
2. Some germs can make us ill.	True	False
3. Soap and water help wash germs away.	True	False
4. Germs are as big as a cat.	True	False

Name _____ Date _____

Science · Healthy habits and germs

The Glitter Test

Read about the test. Circle the right answer.

Miss Sadia put a little glitter on Ali's hand. She said, 'This glitter is like germs.' Ali shook hands with Zain. Then Zain touched a pencil. Soon there was glitter on Zain's hand and on the pencil too! Ali washed with water only, and some glitter stayed. Then he used soap, and the glitter came off.

1. What was the glitter like? germs sweets

2. How did glitter get on Zain's hand? a handshake the rain

3. What took the glitter off best? water only soap and water

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Science · Animal groups

Groups of Animals

Read the big idea. Then match each group to a clue.

Five groups

Animals with a backbone are sorted into five groups: mammals, birds, fish, reptiles and amphibians. Insects are a group of animals with no backbone.

Write the letter in the box.

d	1.	mammals
a	2.	birds
c	3.	fish
e	4.	reptiles
b	5.	amphibians

a) have feathers

b) live in water and on land

c) have scales and fins

d) have fur or hair

e) have dry scaly skin

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Science · Animal groups

Amphibians

Fill in the blanks.

land | water | moist | tadpole

1. Amphibians live in water and on land .

2. They lay their eggs in water .

3. A frog has smooth, moist skin.

4. A baby frog is a tadpole .

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Science · Parts of a plant

Parts of a Plant

Read the big idea. Then label the parts.

Big idea

A plant has roots, a stem, leaves and flowers. Many plants also grow fruit with seeds inside. Each part has a job.

roots stem leaves flower fruit

1. The part under the soil: roots
2. The part that holds the plant up: stem
3. The green flat parts: leaves
4. The bright, colourful part: flower
5. The part that holds seeds: fruit

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Science · Parts of a plant

Which Part Does This?

Circle the right part.

1. Takes water from the soil — roots / flower
2. Makes food using sunlight — leaves / stem
3. Holds the plant up — stem / seed
4. Grows into a new plant — seed / leaf
5. Holds seeds inside — fruit / root

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Science · What plants need to grow

What Do Plants Need?

Read the big idea. Then circle true or false.

Plants need

Plants are living things. To grow well they need water, sunlight, air and space. Most plants also grow in soil, which holds the roots and gives them goodness.

1. Plants need water. True False

2. Plants can grow well in a dark cupboard. True False

3. Plants need air. True False

4. Roots grow in the soil. True False

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Science · What plants need to grow

Parts That Help

Match each part to its job.

Write the letter in the box.

b	1.	roots
a	2.	stem
d	3.	leaves
c	4.	flower

a) carries water up the plant

b) take in water from the soil

c) makes seeds for new plants

d) use sunlight to make food

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Science · Healthy habits and germs

What Are Germs?

Read the big idea. Then circle true or false.

Germs

Germs are tiny living things. They are too small to see. Some germs can make us ill. Washing our hands with soap and water helps get rid of germs.

1. Germs are too small to see. True False

2. Some germs can make us ill. True False

3. Soap and water help wash germs away. True False

4. Germs are as big as a cat. True False

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Science · Healthy habits and germs

The Glitter Test

Read about the test. Circle the right answer.

Miss Sadia put a little glitter on Ali's hand. She said, 'This glitter is like germs.' Ali shook hands with Zain. Then Zain touched a pencil. Soon there was glitter on Zain's hand and on the pencil too! Ali washed with water only, and some glitter stayed. Then he used soap, and the glitter came off.

1. What was the glitter like? germs sweets

2. How did glitter get on Zain's hand? a handshake the rain

3. What took the glitter off best? water only soap and water