Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Our neighbourhood

What Is a Neighbourhood?

Read the big idea. Then circle yes or no.

Neighbourhood

A neighbourhood is the area around our home. It has homes, shops, a school, a park, a mosque and a clinic. The people who live near us are our neighbours.

1. Our neighbours live near us. Yes No

2. A neighbourhood has only one house. Yes No

3. A park can be in a neighbourhood. Yes No

4. We can buy food at a shop near home. Yes No

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Our neighbourhood

Where Is It?

Use the map on page 5. Write north, south, east or west.

north south east west

1. The school is _____ of my house.
2. The shop is _____ of my house.
3. The mosque is _____ of my house.
4. The bakery is _____ of my house.

More free worksheets littletakhti.com

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Transport then and now

What Is Transport?

Read the big idea. Then circle true or false.

Transport

Transport is how we move people and things from one place to another. Long ago people walked or used camels, horses and ox carts. Now we also use cars, buses, trains and aeroplanes.

1. Long ago people used ox carts. True False

2. Aeroplanes were used long, long ago. True False

3. A bus can carry many people. True False

4. Transport moves people and things. True False

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Transport then and now

Trains in Pakistan

Read. Then circle true or false.

Trains

The first train in our land ran from Karachi to Kotri more than 150 years ago. The first trains ran on steam. Today trains carry people and goods all over Pakistan.

1. The first train ran from Karachi. True False

2. Trains are less than 10 years old. True False

3. Old trains used steam. True False

4. Trains carry goods too. True False

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Festivals and celebrations

Special Days

Read the big idea. Then circle true or false.

Celebrate

A festival is a special day that people celebrate together. On special days we may wear nice clothes, eat special food, visit family and friends, and decorate our homes.

1. A festival is a special day. True False

2. We celebrate only by ourselves. True False

3. People may visit family on special days. True False

4. Some special days are for the whole country. True False

More free worksheets littletakhti.com

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Festivals and celebrations

Eid at Home

Read. Then circle yes or no.

Eid

On Eid, families wear new clothes, visit grandparents and relatives, and share food. Children often get Eidi from elders. It is a day for being happy and kind together.

1. Families visit each other on Eid. Yes No

2. Children may get Eidi. Yes No

3. We keep all the food to ourselves. Yes No

4. We wear new or clean clothes. Yes No

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Saving water and electricity

Precious Things

Read the big idea. Then circle true or false.

Save them

Water and electricity are precious. We need clean water to drink, cook and wash. We need electricity for lights, fans and machines. If we waste them, there may not be enough for everyone.

1. We need water to drink and cook. True False
2. Electricity runs lights and fans. True False
3. It is fine to leave a tap running. True False
4. We should switch off lights we do not need. True False

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Saving water and electricity

Hira's Saving Family

Read. Then circle the right answer.

Hira's family has a saving plan. Hira turns off the tap while she brushes. Abbu fixed the dripping tap in the kitchen. Ammi waters the plants in the evening, when the sun is not hot. Everyone switches off the fan when they leave the room.

1. What does Hira do when she brushes? turns off the tap / leaves it running

2. What did Abbu fix? a dripping tap / a bicycle

3. When does Ammi water the plants? in the evening / at noon

4. What do they switch off when they leave? the fan / the fridge

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Our neighbourhood

What Is a Neighbourhood?

Read the big idea. Then circle yes or no.

Neighbourhood

A neighbourhood is the area around our home. It has homes, shops, a school, a park, a mosque and a clinic. The people who live near us are our neighbours.

1. Our neighbours live near us. Yes No

2. A neighbourhood has only one house. Yes No

3. A park can be in a neighbourhood. Yes No

4. We can buy food at a shop near home. Yes No

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Our neighbourhood

Where Is It?

Use the map on page 5. Write north, south, east or west.

north south east west

1. The school is north of my house.
2. The shop is west of my house.
3. The mosque is east of my house.
4. The bakery is south of my house.

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Transport then and now

What Is Transport?

Read the big idea. Then circle true or false.

Transport

Transport is how we move people and things from one place to another. Long ago people walked or used camels, horses and ox carts. Now we also use cars, buses, trains and aeroplanes.

1. Long ago people used ox carts. True / False

2. Aeroplanes were used long, long ago. True / False

3. A bus can carry many people. True / False

4. Transport moves people and things. True / False

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Transport then and now

Trains in Pakistan

Read. Then circle true or false.

Trains

The first train in our land ran from Karachi to Kotri more than 150 years ago. The first trains ran on steam. Today trains carry people and goods all over Pakistan.

1. The first train ran from Karachi. True / False

2. Trains are less than 10 years old. True / False

3. Old trains used steam. True / False

4. Trains carry goods too. True / False

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Festivals and celebrations

Special Days

Read the big idea. Then circle true or false.

Celebrate

A festival is a special day that people celebrate together. On special days we may wear nice clothes, eat special food, visit family and friends, and decorate our homes.

1. A festival is a special day. True False

2. We celebrate only by ourselves. True False

3. People may visit family on special days. True False

4. Some special days are for the whole country. True False

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Festivals and celebrations

Eid at Home

Read. Then circle yes or no.

Eid

On Eid, families wear new clothes, visit grandparents and relatives, and share food. Children often get Eidi from elders. It is a day for being happy and kind together.

1. Families visit each other on Eid. Yes No

2. Children may get Eidi. Yes No

3. We keep all the food to ourselves. Yes No

4. We wear new or clean clothes. Yes No

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Saving water and electricity

Precious Things

Read the big idea. Then circle true or false.

Save them

Water and electricity are precious. We need clean water to drink, cook and wash. We need electricity for lights, fans and machines. If we waste them, there may not be enough for everyone.

1. We need water to drink and cook. True False

2. Electricity runs lights and fans. True False

3. It is fine to leave a tap running. True False

4. We should switch off lights we do not need. True False

ANSWER KEY

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies · Saving water and electricity

Hira's Saving Family

Read. Then circle the right answer.

Hira's family has a saving plan. Hira turns off the tap while she brushes. Abbu fixed the dripping tap in the kitchen. Ammi waters the plants in the evening, when the sun is not hot. Everyone switches off the fan when they leave the room.

1. What does Hira do when she brushes? turns off the tap / leaves it running

2. What did Abbu fix? a dripping tap / a bicycle

3. When does Ammi water the plants? in the evening / at noon

4. What do they switch off when they leave? the fan / the fridge